

An Abominable Legacy.
A tendency to rheumatism is undoubtedly inherited. Unlike many other legacies, it remains in the family. The most effective means of checking this tendency, or of removing incipient rheumatism, whether pre-existent in the blood or not, is to resort to Hostetter's Stomach Bitters as soon as the premonitory twinges are felt. Nullifying the influences of cold, exposure and fatigue, the Bitters not only fortifies the system against their hurtful consequences, but subdues malaria, liver and kidney complaint, dyspepsia and nerve disquietude.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. ## FOUGHT DUEL WITH SWORDS

ITALIAN AND FRENCHMAN SEEK SATISFACTION ON FIELD.

CRIMSON GORE ACTUALLY SHED

Combat Was Fast and Furious From the Start—Prince Henri Was Finally Placed Hors du Combat.

A dispatch from Paris says: The count of Turin and Prince Henri of Orleans fought a duel with swords at 5 o'clock Sunday morning in the Bois de Marechaux at Vaneressen. M. Leontieff acted as umpire.

The duel was most determined and lasted twenty-six minutes. There were five engagements, of which two were at close quarters.

Prince Henri received two serious wounds in the right shoulder and the right side of the abdomen. The count of Turin was wounded in the right hand. Prince Henri was taken to the residence of the Duc de Chartres and received medical attendance.

The seconds of Prince Henri of Orleans were M. de Leontieff, governor general of the equatorial provinces of Abyssinia, and M. Raoul Mourichon. The count of Turin's were General Count Avagradore Quinto and the Marquis Carlo di Giori.

The condition of Prince Henri is reported as satisfactory as could be expected. The doctors, after consultation, have expressed the opinion that no important organ was touched, but absolute rest was necessary for recovery.

Owing to rumors at Naples and elsewhere the public had not expected the duel to come off. It was therefore quite private. The official account, furnished by the seconds, recites the circumstances leading up to the encounter. It says:

"The count of Turin, considering the letters of Prince Henri of Orleans to Figaro offensive to the Italian army, wrote to him on July 6th, demanding a retraction. This letter could not be answered until August 11th, the day of the arrival of Prince Henri in France. The prince replied to the count's demand by telegram, maintaining the right of a traveler to record his experiences."

The official account then describes the arrangements for the duel and gives the names of the respective seconds, and says at the first interview they agreed that the encounter was inevitable. By common accord the conditions were settled as follows:

The weapons to be duelling swords; each combatant to use that of his own country, but the blades to be of equal length, either combatant to be at liberty to maintain the ground he gained and each to be allowed the space of fifteen metres within which to advance or retire; each assault to continue four minutes. The combat to be resumed in the positions occupied and only to terminate on the decision of the four seconds or the advance of the doctor, when one of the adversaries was manifestly in a state of inferiority; the conduct of the meeting to be entrusted alternately to the two parties, lots to be drawn at the commencement.

This latter feature of the arrangement was due to the formal objection of the seconds of Prince Henri of Orleans to the direction of the encounter by a fifth party. At a later meeting the seconds decided upon the rendezvous.

The details of the duel show that the encounter was very sharp and determined.

ASSASSIN GOLLI TRIED.

Sentence of Courtmartial Will Not Be Known Until Its Approval.
Michael Angiolillo, alias "Golli," was tried at Vegara, Spain, Sunday morning by courtmartial for the murder of Senor Canovas del Castillo, at the Baths of Santa Agueda on August 24th.

The court consisted of a lieutenant colonel and six captains of artillery. All the statements of Angiolillo were submitted in writing.

The sentence of the courtmartial will not be divulged until it has been confirmed by the supreme council of war.

McLAURIN IS ILL.

South Carolina Senator Will Stop His Campaign Work.

A Columbia, S. C., special says: Governor Ellerbe received a dispatch Saturday afternoon from George M. Crossland, Senator McLauren's private secretary, from the Senator's home in Bennettsville, stating that Senator McLauren's illness is more serious than was first supposed, and summoning the governor, who is a strong personal friend of the senator, to his bedside by the evening train.

McLauren's physician has absolutely forbidden him from attempting to continue his campaign work for the present. This leaves the campaign work open to Evans, Irby and Duncan.

COXEY FOR GOVERNOR.

Ohio Populists Hold a Red Hot Convention in Columbus.

The Ohio populist state convention opened at Columbus, O., Wednesday, with Mr. Witt, of Cleveland, demanding more than five minutes in which to speak on charges affecting certain middle-of-the-road delegates, who, he said, were there in the interests of Senator Hanna to keep the convention from endorsing the state democratic ticket.

The chairman refused Mr. Witt more time and the delegates told him to sit down. Finally, Martin Crumm, of Columbus, undertook to put him down. Mr. Witt resisted Crumm. George Riddle, of Columbus, seized a chair to assault Crumm. Delegates took the chair from Riddle. General pandemonium prevailed.

E. M. Kerr and Crumm clinched and were fighting when Policeman Dan McNamany separated them. Chairs were broken in the fight.

All of the anti-fusion delegates were seated.

Fusion was repudiated in a manner so emphatic as to leave no chance for controversy regarding the future policy of the party. The convention, by an overwhelming majority, severed the alliance made a year ago with the democrats on the free silver issue and nominated a full state ticket.

The resolutions adopted reaffirmed the populist platform adopted by the Omaha and St. Louis conventions of the party, and took issue on several matters of local interest. At the afternoon session the following state ticket was nominated:

For governor, Jacob Coxey, Starke county; lieutenant governor, Morris Whitcomb, Tuscarawas county; supreme judge, E. C. Pomeroy; attorney general, C. A. Reider, Wayne county; state treasurer, F. M. Morris, Auglaize county.

The convention remained in session until after 6 o'clock, awaiting the report of the investigating committee, but it was not forthcoming, and the convention adjourned sine die, with the understanding that the committee would report to the state central committee.

GEORGIA AGRICULTURISTS

Hold Their Annual Convention at Tybee Island.

The Georgia Agricultural society convened in annual session at Tybee Island Wednesday. There were fully 125 representative farmers present at the opening session.

The address of welcome was delivered by Mayor Meldrin of Savannah, and was responded to by Colonel J. M. Mobley, of Harris. The address by President Brown was delivered shortly afterward, after which the convention adjourned until 3 o'clock, when Mrs. W. H. Felton of Cartersville, spoke on "Woman's Work on the Farm."

Dr. Hape was re-elected to succeed himself as secretary. When the matter of the proposed state fair was reached Mr. Joseph Thompson in behalf of Atlanta, appeared with the pledged subscription of that city.

It was felt, however, that too short a time existed in which to prepare for such an event and it was decided to call off the whole proposition.

FAMILIES OF MINERS STARVING.

In Many Homes There is Absolutely Nothing Whatever to Eat.

A Pittsburg special of Wednesday says: The latest movement of the strikers indicates that the miners' leaders have abandoned all hope of drawing the coke region into the strike and have adopted a plan of using the cokers to assist the strikers in a more profitable way.

"The headquarters of the district officials of the United Mine Workers in Pittsburg are still besieged with appeals for aid from the starving women and children of the striking miners."

The requests for help are away in excess of the means to respond. In many homes there is nothing but dry bread to eat, and in some cases not even this.

Arrangements are being made for a big labor meeting in McKee's port Saturday evening, which all the striking miners in the Turtle Creek and Monongahela valleys are expected to attend.

Colored Bishop Dies.

James Crawford Embury, bishop of the African Methodist Episcopal church in South Carolina, died Wednesday at his home in Philadelphia.

THESE ARE WELL FIXED.

New Englanders Go to Klondike in Good Shape.

One of the largest and best equipped of all the parties that have started for the Klondike region from Seattle this season has just arrived in that city from New England.

The members are organized on a military basis, with a captain, a secretary and a treasurer.

SUFFERING WOMEN.

How Many of Them Have Quietly Obtained Advice That Made Them Well.

My sister, if you find that in spite of following faithfully your family doctor's advice, you are not getting well, why do you not try another course? Many and many a woman has quietly written to Mrs. Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., stating her symptoms plainly and clearly, and taken her advice, which was promptly received. The following letter is a pretty strong confirmation of our claims:

"I had been sick for six months; one doctor told me I would have to go to a hospital before I would get well. I had female troubles in their worst form, suffered untold agonies every month; my womb tipped back to my backbone, had headache, hysteria, fainting spells, itching, leucorrhoea."

"My feet and hands were cold all the time, my limbs were so weak that I could hardly walk around the house; was, troubled with numb spells. I have taken four bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, one bottle of her Blood Purifier, one package of her Sanative Wash, and am entirely cured. I have not had one of those numb spells since. Can you wonder that I sing the praises of a medicine that has cured me of all these ills?"—Mrs. LOUISA PLACE, 650 Belmont St., Brockton, Mass.
